

About Ing-Marie Andersson Drugge

Ing-Marie Andersson Drugge has a MSc Engineer/Metallurgist degree from University of Luleå. She has substantial experience from management positions within the processing industry and is since April 2021 employed as plant manager at Munters Tobo. Her experience also includes senior positions within Boliden and Outokumpu. Ing-Marie Andersson Drugge also has earlier board experience from, among others, Swerim AB, EIT Raw Materials and SIP-STRIM, a Swedish innovation programme for mines and smelters.